

Michael Williams

President/CEO

Michael founded 3i in 2001 as a one-man operation, specializing in drywall and small general contracting services. His first project was a $60,000 tenant improvement contract with a local office building. 3i's list of clients today includes such companies as Dallas and Houston Independent School Districts, DFW Airport, Dallas County Community College District, Texas Department of Transportation and Harris County.

Providing on-time and on-budget service is Michael's philosophy. His personal commitment to the company philosophy has firmly established 3i's reputation for high standards, and led to its expansion into the education, retail, commercial, civil, religious and healthcare office service markets. Michael's commitment to integrity, innovation and information is the reason why 3i was chosen as the winner of several Minority "Best" Business Awards.

Michael is a former Chairman of the Dallas Chapter of NBA Retired Players Association, Baylor University Letterman's and Business School Advisory Boards, Regional Black Contractors Association Board to name a few. He established the Mike Williams Assist for Life Foundation that focuses on inner city youth in education and exposes them to things outside of their communities. He was also named one of Dallas' Top Business Leaders by the Dallas Business Journal.

Prior to founding 3i, Michael played 11 Years in the NBA and won a Championship with the 1989 Detroit Pistons "Bad Boys". He also holds the NBA Record for most consecutive Free-Throws of "97". While playing in the NBA, Michael worked for construction firms to prepare his future in the construction industry.

University of Baylor Marketing & Finance Tuck School of Business Executive Program